BRAND IDENTITY BOOK · VERSION 2.0 · NOVEMBER 2026

Opulence, within reach.

الفخامة في متناول يدك

Brand strategy, three logo directions rooted in Arabian craft, brand guidelines, and mockups for Opulent Living Design Services, Dubai. Founded by Jyoti Joshi.

STRATEGY CONCEPTS GUIDELINES APPLICATIONS

HOW THIS BRAND WAS BUILT

From a word to a world.

Graphic designers do not start with a logo. They start with the business, the people it serves, and the culture it lives in. For a Dubai studio serving Emirati and Arab families, that means hospitality, privacy, heritage craft, and a bilingual identity from day one.

01

Discover

Brief, founder interview, competitors, and the meaning of the name.

02

Define

Audience, culture, personality, and tone in English and Arabic.

03

Mood

Majlis, mashrabiya, date palm, marble, and brass.

04

Symbols

Gate, palm, and star: three symbols of Arabian living.

05

Concepts

Three emblems with bilingual wordmarks, tested large and small.

06

Guidelines

Colour, type, pattern, clear space, and what not to do.

07

Apply

Cards, stationery, hoardings, signage, and social media.

THE BRIEF

"Wealthy green, gold, and beige. Affordable luxury."

Jyoti Joshi, founder

CLIENT

Opulent Living Design Services

Interior design and turnkey fit-out for homes and hospitality across Dubai.

MARKET

Emirati and Arab families

Villas, apartments, and majlis spaces, plus cafés and boutiques. Everything in Arabic and English.

DELIVERABLES

Strategy and tone

Three logo directions

Colour, type, and pattern

Cards, signage, and social

o·pu·lent liv·ing

noun phrase

A way of life marked by great wealth, lavish comfort, grand aesthetics, and an abundance of fine things.

After the Cambridge and Merriam-Webster dictionaries.

Lavish display

Art, custom architecture, and pieces that are meant to be seen.

Rich materials

Marble, gold accents, crystal chandeliers, and plush textures.

Abundance

More than enough: options, comfort, and detail beyond the basic.

THE TENSION WE DESIGN FOR

The name promises opulence. The founder promises affordable luxury.

In Arabian culture, generosity to the guest (karam) is the truest wealth. The brand keeps the grandeur of the majlis and drops the excess: grand on the eye, honest on the invoice.

BRAND IDEA

Opulence, within reach.

الفخامة في متناول يدك

02 · DEFINE

Who it is for.

Emirati and Arab families
Homes built around the majlis, privacy for the family wing, and generous hospitality for guests.

Villa and apartment owners
Residents across Dubai who want a five-star home without a five-star mark-up.

Hospitality and retail
Cafés, majlis lounges, salons, and boutiques that want a grand first impression on a sensible budget.

PERSONALITY

Five traits.

Grand	not gaudy
Hospitable	not cold or exclusive
Rooted	in Arabian craft, not cliché
Honest	not salesy
Confident	not loud

TONE OF VOICE · BILINGUAL

How it speaks.

WE SAY

"A majlis worthy of every guest, at a price that makes sense."

مجلس يليق بكل ضيف، بسعر مدروس.

WE AVOID

~~"Ultra-exclusive bespoke opulence for the elite few."~~

All Arabic copy in this book is a draft and must be checked by a native Arabic copywriter before printing.

COMPETITIVE LANDSCAPE

Where we sit.

Dubai's luxury studios charge ultra-premium fees, and the affordable fit-out firms look generic. Nobody owns heritage grandeur at a fair price. That gap is Opulent Living's.

Categories shown, not named firms. Replace with an audit of six to eight real Dubai studios.

03 · MOOD BOARD

Majlis, mashrabiya, emerald.

The feeling of an Emirati home at its most welcoming: coffee poured from a brass dallah, light filtered through carved screens, marble underfoot, and deep green velvet.

- Wealthy green — the date palm and velvet
- Gold — brass dallah and calligraphy
- Beige — desert sand and travertine

KEYWORDS

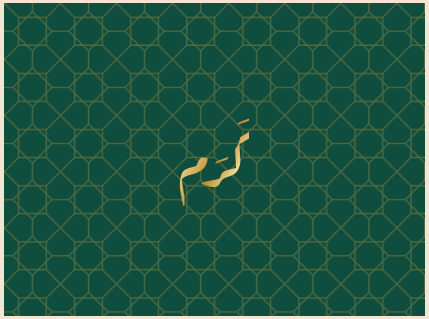

Majlis · Mashrabiya · Date palm · Arches · Calligraphy · Karam (generosity) · Marble · Brass

Gate, palm, and star.

Each keyword from the brief is traced back to a symbol Emirati families already treasure, then refined into a mark that can be foiled, carved, embroidered, and shown on a phone screen.

الباب · AL BAB · THE GATE

The majlis gate

An ogee arch filled with a mashrabiya lattice: the doorway where every guest is welcomed.

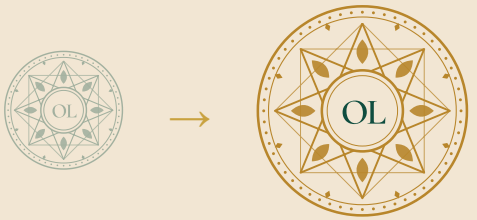

النخلة · NAKHLA · THE PALM

The palm crest

Two date-palm fronds, the UAE's symbol of generosity and abundance, crowned like a royal crest.

النجمة · NAJMA · THE STAR

The star seal

An eight-point Islamic geometric star inside a beaded ring, like a gold coin or a signet seal.

CONCEPT 01 · AL BAB الباب

The Majlis Gate

An ogee arch, as found on Emirati palaces and mosques, filled with a hand-cut mashrabiya lattice. A gold medallion at the threshold carries the "OL" monogram, and a pearl finial crowns the arch. Below, the name in classic serif capitals over Arabic Ruqaa calligraphy.

CONCEPT 02 · NAKHLA النخلة

The Palm Crest

Two date-palm fronds, each leaflet drawn in gold, curve around a monogram medallion and meet beneath a crown of three diamonds. A royal crest that speaks of generosity, abundance, and a family name, set with Roman capitals and Arabic Naskh.

The Star Seal

An eight-point star from Islamic geometry, with petals and a beaded rim like an old gold dinar or a signet ring. It is precise, intricate, and modern at once, paired with a refined sans-serif name and geometric Kufi Arabic.

On wealthy green
On beige
Small-size test app icon, favicon, stamp
Best for	An interior studio: it literally frames a room. Ideal for signage, embossing, and carving.	A grand, family-crest feel with strong Emirati pride. Ideal for launches and gifting.	A modern, digital-first brand. Ideal for social media, packaging, and app icons.

DESIGNER'S PICK

Concept 01, The Majlis Gate. It says "interior design" and "Arabian hospitality" in one shape, carries the brand pattern inside it, and works foiled, carved in stone, or as an app icon. The guidelines that follow use it as the example and apply to any concept chosen.

Wealthy green, gold, and beige.

Use roughly 60% beige grounds, 30% green, and 10% gold. Gold is an accent: a line, a monogram, a foil, or the lattice pattern. It is never a large flat background.

In Dubai, signs and printed materials show Arabic and English together. Arabic sits on the right or above, at equal visual weight.

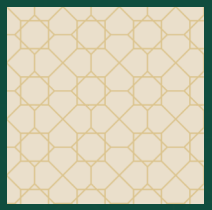

08 · GUIDELINES — BRAND PATTERN

The mashrabiya lattice.

An eight-point khatam star repeated into a screen, the same lattice that fills the arch of the logo. Use it at low opacity on green, as foil on packaging, laser-cut in brass or timber, and as the lining of envelopes and boxes.

Tint 25% on green

Fine, 45% on beige

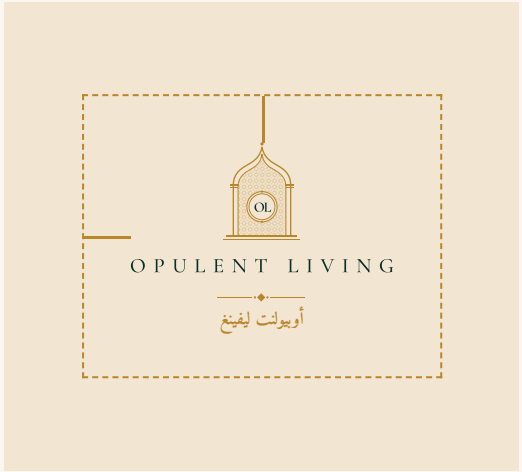

Full foil, packaging

Space to breathe.

Clear space

Keep a margin equal to the medallion's width on every side. Nothing enters it.

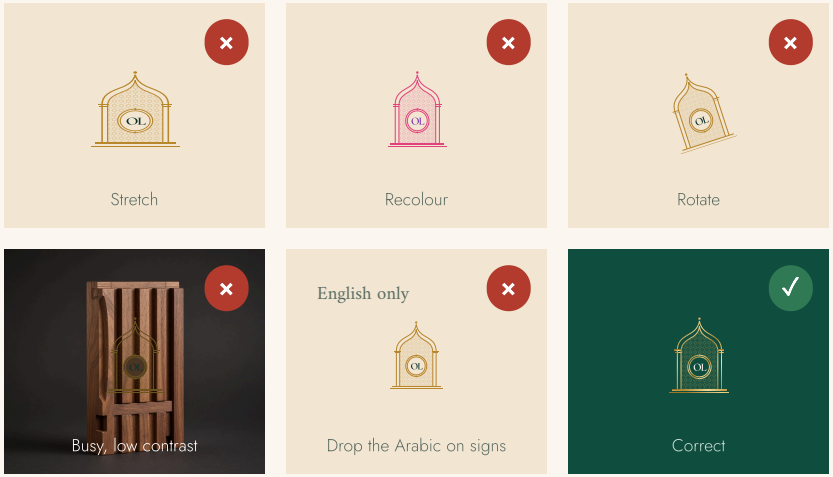

Minimum size

Full bilingual logo no smaller than 25 mm wide in print and 140 px on screen. Below that, use the gate emblem alone.

Do not

Keep the logo as drawn. These changes cheapen it.

Approved versions: reversed on green, full colour on beige, single colour on gold, and black for newspapers and fax.

Three cards, bilingual.

Front in wealthy green with the lattice in tonal varnish and the emblem in gold foil. Back in pearl ivory, English on the left and Arabic on the right. 90 × 54 mm, 600 gsm cotton board, gilt edges.
